SCHEDULE I.

PRESCRIBED TESTS.

[Vide Rule 16.]

I.—Heat Test as applied to Explosives of the Nitro-compound Class.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS.

Apparatus required.

1. A water-bath, consisting of a spherical glass or copper vessel [(A) Fig. I] of about 8 inches diameter, and with an aperture of about 5 inches; the bath is filled with water to within a quarter of an inch of the edge. It has a loose cover of sheet copper about 6 inches in diameter (B), and rests on a tripod stand about 14 inches high (C), which is covered with coarse iron wire gauze (e), and is surrounded with a screen of thin sheet tin or copper (D). Within the latter is placed an Argand burner (F), with a glass chimney. The cover (B) has four holes arranged as seen in Fig. II, No. 4, to receive the regulator, No. 3 the thermometer, Nos. 1 and 2 the test-tubes containing the gun-cotton or other materials to be tested. Around holes 1 and 2 on the under side of the cover are soldered three pieces of brass wire with points slightly converging (Fig. III); these act as springs and allow the test-tubes to be easily placed in position and removed.

FIG. I.

FIG. II.

FIG. III.

FIG. IV.

* 2. Scheibler's or Page's temperature regulator.
* 3. Two cells of Le Clanché's battery No. 1 } if Scheibler's regulator
* 4. A few yards of insulated copper wire } is used.

5. Test-tubes from 5¼ to 5½ inches long, and of such diameter that they will hold from 20 to 22 cubic centimetres of water when filled to a height of 5 inches.

6. India-rubber stoppers, fitting the test-tubes and carrying an arrangement for holding the test-paper, viz., a narrow glass tube passing through the centre of the stopper, drawn out so as to form a hook, or terminating in a platinum wire hook (Fig. IV).

7. A thermometer, with range not less than from 30° to 212° Fahrenheit.

8. A minute clock.

Materials required.

(a) Test-paper.—The test-paper is prepared as follows:—45 grains of white maize starch (cornflour), previously washed with cold water, are added to 8½ ounces of distilled water, the mixture is stirred, heated to boiling, and kept gently boiling for 10 minutes; 15 grains of pure potassium iodide (i.e., which has been recrystallized from alcohol) are dissolved in 8½ ounces of distilled water. The two solutions are thoroughly mixed and allow to get cold. Strips, or sheets, of best white English filter paper, weighing air dry, from 4·1 to 4·6 grammes per 100 square inches, previously washed with water and re-dried, are dipped into the solution thus prepared, and allow to remain in it for not less than 10 seconds; they are then allowed to drain and dry in a place free from laboratory fumes and dust The upper and lower margins of the strips, or sheets, are cut off, and the paper is preserved in well-stoppered or corked bottles *and in the dark. The dimensions of the pieces of test-paper used are about $\frac{4}{10}$ inch by $\frac{8}{10}$ inch (10 mm. by 20 mm.).

(b) Standard tint-paper.—A solution of caramel in water is made of such concentration that when diluted one hundred times (10 cc. made up to 1 litre) the tint of this diluted solution equals the tint produced by the Nessler test in 100 cc. water containing 0·000075 grm. of ammonia or 0·00023505 grm. of chloride of ammonium. With this caramel solution lines are drawn on strips of white filter paper† by means of a clean quill pen. When the marks thus produced are dry the paper is cut into pieces of the same size as the test-paper previously described, in such a way that each piece has a brown line across it near the middle of its length, and only such strips are preserved in which the brown line has a breadth varying from ½ mm. to 1 mm. ($\frac{1}{50}$ of an inch to $\frac{1}{25}$ of an inch).

II.—Testing Dynamite, Blasting Gelatine, and other Explosives of the First Division of the Nitro-compound Class.

A.—DYNAMITE, ETC., ETC.

Nitro-glycerine preparations, from which the nitro-glycerine can be extracted in the manner described below, must satisfy the following test:—

This test, however, though at present looked upon as the most important, as far as testing the purity of the nitro-glycerine is concerned, is in England only one of several which any given sample of nitro-glycerine preparation has to satisfy in order to establish its compliance with the definition in the authorised list.

Apparatus required.

A funnel 2 inches across (D), a cylindrical measure divided into grains (E) (see sketch).

Mode of operation.

About 300 to 400 grains of dynamite (B) finely divided are placed into the funnel which has previously been loosely plugged by some freshly-ignited asbestos (A).

The surface is smoothed by means of a flat-headed glass rod or stopper, and some clean washed and dried Kieselguhr (C) is spread over it to the depth of about ⅛ inch.

Water is next carefully dropped from a wash bottle upon this Kieselguhr, and when the first portion has been soaked up more is added; this is repeated until sufficient nitroglycerine has been collected in the graduated measure (E) below.

* When a paper is freshly prepared, and as long as it remains in good condition, a drop of dilute acetic acid, put on the paper with a glass rod, produces no coloration. In process of time, however, the stronger the light to which the paper is exposed, the sooner a drop of acid produces a brown or bluish coloration (a single hour of direct sunlight produces a marked effect), and whenever this is the case the paper should be rejected. After preparation the paper should be kept in the dark for a month before being taken into use. After that, if carefully kept in the dark, it will remain good for six months or more, but should be tested from time to time as above.

† This paper must be carefully washed with distilled water in the first instance, to remove any traces of bleaching matter, and dried.

If any water should have passed through with the nitro-glycerine, it should be removed with a piece of blotting paper and the nitro-glycerine, if necessary, filtered through a dry paper filter.

Application of the Test.

The thermometer is fixed so as to be inserted through the lid of the water-bath described under I into the water (which is to be steadily maintained at a temperature of 160° Fahr.*) to a depth of 2¼ inches. Fifty grains of nitro-glycerine to be tested are weighed into a test-tube in such a way as not to soil the sides of the tube. A test-paper is fixed on the hook of the glass rod so that when inserted into the tube it will be in a vertical position. A sufficient amount of a mixture of half distilled water and half glycerine to moisten the upper half of the paper is now applied to the upper edge of the test-paper by means of a camel's-hair pencil, the cork carrying the rod and paper is fixed into the test-tube and the position of the paper adjusted, so that its lower edge is about half-way down the tube; the latter is then inserted through one of the perforations of the cover to such a depth that the lower margin of the moistened part of the paper is about five-eighths of an inch above the surface of the cover. The test is complete when the faint brown line, which after a time makes its appearance at the line of boundary between the dry and moist part of the paper, equals in tint the brown line of the standard tint paper.

The nitro-glycerine under examination will not be considered to have satisfied the test unless the time necessary to produce the standard tint as above described is at least 15 minutes.

B.—BLASTING GELATINE, GELATINE DYNAMITE, AND ANALOGOUS PREPARATIONS.

Fifty grains of blasting gelatine are to be intimately incorporated with 100 grains of French chalk.† The mixture is to be gradually introduced into a test-tube of the dimensions prescribed above for the dynamite heat test, with the aid of gentle tapping upon the table, between the introduction of successive portions of the mixture into the tube, so that when the tube contains all the mixture it shall be filled to the extent of 1¾ inches of its height. The test-paper is then to be inserted and the heat is to be applied in the manner prescribed above for the dynamite heat test, and the sample tested is to withstand exposure to 160° Fahr. for a period of 10 minutes, before producing a discoloration of the test-papers corresponding in tint to the standard colour test which is employed for governing the results of the dynamite heat tests.

(For Exudation and Liquefaction tests for Blasting Gelatine, etc., etc., see Appendix).

N.B.—Non-gelatinized nitro-glycerine preparations from which the nitro-glycerine cannot be expelled by water are tested without any previous separation of the ingredients, the temperature being as above (160° Fahr.) and the time being 7 minutes.

C.—CORDITE AND BALLISTITE.

1. Apparatus required.

The apparatus necessary for the application of the heat test to cordite is identical with that described above for explosives of the nitro-compound class generally‡ with the addition of a mill and a nest of sieves§ similar to those used at Waltham Abbey for preparing the cordite for testing (see instructions below).

* For explosives supplied for His Majesty's Military and Naval Services the temperature is fixed by the War Office at 180°

† This can be readily effected by carefully working the two materials together with a wooden pestle in a wooden mortar

The French chalk should be of good commercial quality, and, after being carefully washed with distilled water and dried in a water oven, it should be exposed under a bell jar to moist air until it has taken up about 0·5 per cent of moisture It should then be bottled for use, and with ordinary care the limits of 0·5 per cent can be maintained in keeping

‡ In the Waltham Abbey apparatus the cover (Fig II) has all the holes around the circumference instead of having one in the centre and three around the circumference

§ A nest of two sieves with the holes drilled in sheet copper The holes in the top sieve have a diameter=11 B W G, those in the second=21 B W G

If too hard for the mill, it may be softened by exposure to the vapour of acetone, or reduced to the necessary degree of sub-division by means of a sharp moderately coarse rasp Should it have become too soft in the acetone vapour for the mill, it should be cut up into small pieces which may be brought to any desired degree of hardness by simple exposure to air

Explosives which consist partly of gelatinized collodion cotton and partly of ungelatinized gun cotton are best reduced to powder by a rasp, or softened by exposure to mixed ether and alcohol vapour at a temperature of 90° to 100° Fahr

2. Preparation of the sample to be tested.

Pieces half an inch long are cut from one end of every stick selected for the test; in the case of the thicker cordites, each piece so cut is further subdivided into about four portions. These cut pieces are then passed once through the mill, the first portion of material which passes through being rejected on account of the possible presence of foreign matter from the mill. The ground material is put on the top sieve of the nest of sieves and sifted. The portion which has passed through the top sieve and been stopped by the second is taken for the test. If the mill is properly set the greater portion of the ground material will be of the proper size.

If the volatile matter in the explosive exceed 0·5 per cent., the sifted material should be dried at a temperature not exceeding 140° Fahr. until the proportion does not exceed 0·5 per cent.

After each sample has been ground, the mill must be taken to pieces and carefully cleaned.

3. Application of the Test.

The thermometer is fixed so as to be inserted through the lid of the water-bath described under paragraph 1, so as to be immersed in the water to a depth of 2¾ inches. The water is maintained at a constant temperature of 180° Fahr. When this temperature is reached, 25 grains of the sifted cordite are put into one of the test-tubes, and collected at the bottom by gentle tapping. A test-paper is fixed on to the hook of the glass rod, so that when inserted into the tube it will be in a vertical position. A mixture of equal parts of distilled water and pure glycerine (Price's) is now applied to the upper edge of the test-paper by means of a camel's-hair pencil, in sufficient amount to moisten the upper half; the stopper carrying the rod and paper is fixed into the test-tube and the position of the paper adjusted so that its lower edge is about half way down the tube; the latter is then inserted through one of the perforations of the cover to the same depth as the thermometer. The lower margin of the moistened part of the paper should then be about five-eighths of an inch above the surface of the cover. The test is completed when the faint brown line, which after a time makes its appearance at the margin between the wet and dry portions of the test-paper, equals in depth of tint the brown line drawn on the standard tint paper.

4. The time which elapses between the insertion of the test-tube and the completion of the test must not be less than 15 minutes.

N.B.—In the case of ballistite the treatment is the same, except that when it is in a very finely granulated condition it need not be cut up.

III.—Testing Gun-cotton, Schultz's Gun Powder, E. C. Powder, and other explosives of the 2nd Division of the Nitro-compound Class.

A.—COMPRESSED NITRO-CELLULOSE, TONITE, ETC., ETC.

Sufficient material to serve for two or more tests is removed from the centre of the cartridge by gentle scraping, and, if necessary, further reduced by rubbing through a sieve with a clean hard brush.

The fine powder thus produced is spread out in a thin layer upon a paper tray 6 inches by 4½ inches which is then placed inside a water oven, kept, as nearly as possible, at 120° Fahr.

The wire gauze shelves in the oven should be about 3 inches apart. The sample is allowed to remain at rest for 15 minutes in the oven, the door of which is left wide open.

After the lapse of 15 minutes the tray is removed and exposed to the air of the room for two hours, the sample being at some point within that time rubbed upon the tray with a brush, in order to reduce it to a fine and uniform state of division.

Application of the test.

The cover of the water-bath is fitted with the gas regulator which is inserted through the centre hole (No. 4). The thermometer is fixed into hole No. 3. The water in the bath is then heated to 170° Fahr., and the regulator set to maintain that temperature. Twenty grains of the sample to be tested are weighed out, placed in the test-tube, and gently pressed down until the specimen occupies a space of not more than $1\frac{1}{16}$ inches in a test-tube of the dimensions specified. A test-paper is affixed to the hook of the glass rod or tube, and moistened by touching the upper edge with a drop of distilled water containing 50 per cent. of Price's glycerine. The quantity of liquid used must be only sufficient to moisten about half of the paper. The cork carrying the rod and test-paper is then fixed into the test-tube, and the latter inserted into the bath to a depth of 2½ inches, measured from the cover, the regulator and thermometer being inserted to the same depth. The test-paper is to be kept near the top of the test-tube, but clear of the cork, until the tube has been immersed for about five minutes. A ring of moisture will about this time be deposited upon the sides of the test-tube a little above the cover of the bath; the glass rod must then be lowered until the lower margin of the moistened part of the paper is on a level with the bottom of the ring of moisture in the tube; the paper is now closely watched. The test is complete when the faint brown line which makes its appearance at the line of boundary between the dry and moist parts of the paper equals in tint the brown line of the standard tint paper.

The interval of time between the first insertion of the tube containing the sample of gun-cotton in the water at 170° and the production of the standard tint constitutes the test, and this interval of time must be not less than 10 minutes, or the sample will not be considered to have satisfied the test.

B.—Gelatinized and Semi-Gelatinized Nitro-Cellulose Preparations.*

Twenty-five grains introduced into the test-tube* of the dimensions prescribed for the dynamite heat test, then proceed as for blasting gelatine, etc., taking the temperature at 180° Fahr., and the time as 15 minutes.

C.—Nitro-Cellulose not included in A. or B., Schultz's Powder, E. C. Powder, etc., etc.

Sufficient of the sample, without further mechanical division, is dried in the oven as above, and then exposed for two hours to the air. The test as directed above for compressed nitro-cellulose, etc., is then applied, the minimum duration of test being the same, viz., 10 minutes.

D.—Picric Acid.

(1) The material shall contain not more than 0·3 part of mineral or non-combustible matter in 100 parts by weight of the material dried at 160° Fahr.

(2) It should not contain more than a minute trace of lead.

(3) One hundred parts of the dry material shall not contain more than 0·3 part of total (free and combined) sulphuric acid, of which not more than 0·1 part shall be free sulphuric acid.

(4) Its melting point should be between 248° and 253° Fahr.

E.—Ammonite, Bellite, Roburite, and Explosives of similar composition.

These are required to stand the same heat test as compressed nitro-cellulose.

IV.—Testing Chlorate Mixtures.

The material must not be too sensitive† and must show no tendency to increase in sensitiveness on keeping.

The material must contain nothing liable to reduce the chlorate.

Chlorides calculated as potassium chloride must not exceed 0·25 per cent.

* If in a compressed form it should be broken up in the same manner as cordite and ballistite.

† They will be considered too sensitive if they can be exploded however partially by means of a glancing blow with a broomstick on soft wood (such as deal).

The material must contain no free acid, or substance liable to produce free acid.

Explosives of this class containing nitro-compounds will be subject to the heat test as if they belonged to Class III.

V.—Testing Ammunition (Divisions 2 and 3).

Any explosive made up into ammunition (other than Division I), for which a test is provided in the schedule, is to be tested as if not so made up.

APPENDIX.

Exudation and Liquefaction Test for Blasting Gelatine, Gelatine Dynamite and analogous Preparations.

TEST FOR LIQUEFACTION.

A cylinder of blasting gelatine is to be cut from the cartridge to be tested, the length of the cylinder to be about equal to its diameter and the ends being cut flat.

The cylinder is to be placed on end on a flat surface without any wrapper, and secured by a pin passing vertically through its centre.

In this condition the cylinder is to be exposed for 144 consecutive hours (six days and nights), to a temperature ranging from 85° to 90° Fahr. (inclusive), and during such exposure the cylinder shall not diminish in height by more than one-fourth of its original height, and the upper cut surface shall retain its flatness and the sharpness of its edge.

Note.—If the blasting gelatine and the gelatine dynamite to be tested be not made up in a cylindrical form, the above test is to be applied with the necessary modifications

TEST FOR LIABILITY TO EXUDATION.

There shall be no separation from the general mass of the blasting gelatine or gelatine dynamite of a substance of less consistency than the bulk of the remaining portion of the materials under any conditions of storage, transport, or use, or when the material is subjected three times in succession to alternate freezing and thawing, or when subjected to the liquefaction test hereinbefore described.

CONDITIONS.

1. This license is granted subject to the provisions of the Indian Explosives Act, 1884, and the rules thereunder. [IV of 1884]

2. The whole vessel, barge or craft in or on board which the explosives are stored shall be deemed to constitute the magazine.

3. The magazine shall be used only for the keeping of such explosives as may be specified in the license, and of receptacles for, or tools or implements for work connected with, the keeping of such explosives.

4. The interior of the magazine, and the benches, shelves and fittings therein, shall be so constructed or so lined or covered as to prevent the exposure of any iron or steel in such manner, and the detaching of any grit, iron, steel or similar substance in such manner, as to come into contact with the explosives in such magazine; and such interior, benches, shelves and fittings shall, so far as is reasonably practicable, be kept free from grit and otherwise clean.

5. The magazine shall have attached thereto an efficient lightning conductor, which shall be tested previous to the storage of explosives.

6. No charcoal, whether ground or otherwise, oiled cotton, oiled rags or oiled waste and no article whatever which is liable to spontaneous ignition shall be taken into the magazine.

7. Before repairs are done to or in any part of the magazine, it shall, so far as practicable, be cleaned by the removal of all explosives and by a thorough washing out. After being so cleaned, it shall not be deemed to be a magazine until explosives are again taken into it.

8. There shall be constantly kept in the magazine, affixed in such manner as to be easily read, a copy of the license, and of any special rules that may be issued from time to time for the keeping of explosives in a floating magazine.

9. All tools and implements used in any repairs to or in any part of the magazine shall be made only of wood or copper or brass or some soft metal or material, or shall be covered with some safe and suitable material.

10. No fires, lights or lucifer matches, and no substance or article which is likely to cause explosion or fire, shall be permitted to be at any time in the magazine.

11. Due provision shall be made, by the use of suitable working clothes without pockets, or of suitable shoes, or by searching or otherwise, or by some such means, for preventing the introduction into the magazine of fire lucifer matches or any substance or article which is likely to cause explosion or fire; and for preventing the introduction of any grit, iron or steel into any part of the magazine where it would be likely to come into contact with explosives; and in any part of the magazine in which any explosive is kept which is liable to be dangerously affected by water, due precautions shall be taken to exclude water from such part; but this condition shall not prevent the introduction of an artificial light of such construction, position or character as not to cause any danger of fire or explosion; and so much of this condition as relates to the exclusion of grit, iron or steel shall not be obligatory in the case of a magazine in which no explosive other than explosives of the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class is kept.

12. No person shall smoke in any part of the magazine.

13. (1) The licensee shall not employ any vessel, barge or craft to carry an explosive to or from the magazine unless the cabin, hold or other part of the vessel, barge or craft in which the explosive is or is to be carried—

(a) is constructed without any exposed iron or steel in the interior thereof.

(b) contains only explosives, and

(c) is closed or otherwise properly covered over:

Provided that clause (a) shall not apply in the case of any vessel, barge or craft which carries no explosive other than explosive of the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class, or which is specially exempted by an order of the Chief Inspector of Explosives or by an order of the Local Government endorsed on this license.

(2) The licensee shall see that the explosives to be placed on any vessel, barge or craft so employed are loaded, carried and unloaded with all due diligence and with such precautions and in such manner as will sufficiently guard against any accidental ignition.

14. The licensee shall see—

(a) that no fire, unprotected light or smoking is allowed while any explosive [other than explosives of the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class] is being received or delivered, or while the hatches or door of the magazine, or the hatches or coverings of any vessel, barge or craft alongside containing any such explosive, are open; and

(b) that no receipt or delivery of explosive is carried on, and that the hatches or door of the magazine are or is kept closed, when any vessel, barge or craft having on board a fire (other than engine-fires properly banked up) or an unprotected light is alongside a magazine containing an explosive other than explosives of the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class or in the immediate vicinity.

15. A person under the age of fourteen years shall not be employed in or enter the magazine, except in the presence and under the supervision of some grown-up person.

16. In the case of the magazine being approachable at low water by carriages, the words "vessel, barge, or craft," in Nos. 13 and 14 of these conditions, shall be taken to include a carriage.

17. (1) Two or more descriptions of explosives, which may lawfully be possessed in a licensed magazine, may be possessed in the same magazine, if they are separated from each other by an intervening partition of such substance and character, or by such intervening space, as will effectually prevent explosion or fire in one compartment from extending to another compartment.

(2) Provided as follows:—

(a) the various explosives of Classes 1 (gunpowder), 2 (nitrate-mixture), 3 (nitro-compound) and 4 (chlorate mixture), safety fuzes belonging to the 1st Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class, and such of the various explosives of the 2nd Division of the 6th (ammunition) Class, as do not contain any exposed iron or steel, may be kept with each other without any intervening partition or space;

J. H. KERR,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 196, dated Simla, the 17th May 1912.

NOTIFICATION—By the Govt. of India, Dept. of Education.

THE Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that the words "or by a plain granite or marble curb on a concrete foundation" shall be added after the words "metal pillars" in line 2 of rule 19, Part I, of the Ecclesiastical Rules, published with the Home Department Notification No. 465, dated the 6th November 1909.

No. 953T.G.—The 24th June 1912.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 37 of the Indian Factories Act, 1911 (XII of 1911), and in supersession of all existing rules on the subject, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules :—

1. These rules and orders may be cited as "The Bengal Factories Rules, 1912."

2. In these rules and orders—

(a) words and expressions which are defined in the Indian Factories Act, 1911, have the same meaning as in the said Act;

(b) "the Act" means the Indian Factories Act, 1911;

(c) "Inspector" means an Inspector appointed under section 4 of the Act;

Proviso (1).—When in any area the Local Government has, by notification in the local official Gazette, under sub-section (5) of section (4), declared that the District Magistrate or an additional Inspector shall exercise all the powers of an Inspector under the Act, the word "Inspector" shall be held to include such District Magistrate or additional Inspector.

Proviso (2).—When in any area the Local Government has declared, as aforesaid, that a District Magistrate or additional Inspector shall exercise certain powers of an Inspector, the word "Inspector" shall be held to include such District Magistrate or additional Inspector, only in so far as any one or more of these rules are specified in the notification.

Register of factories.

3. Every Inspector shall keep a register of factories in Form A in the Schedule appended to these rules, and shall, if he be not himself the District Magistrate, furnish a copy thereof to the District Magistrate on the 15th February of each year. He shall also forthwith intimate to the District Magistrate all changes in the register which are made in pursuance of rules 4 and 5.

Directions for compiling register of factories.

4. (1) When an Inspector receives a notice under section 33 from any person occupying a factory, he shall, if he has not already done so, include such factory in his register.

(2) When an Inspector has reason to believe that any premises, situated within the local limits for which he is appointed and not already registered as a factory, ought to be so registered, he shall send to the occupier of the premises a notice intimating his intention of including such premises in his register of factories.

(3) Any person served with a notice under sub-rule (2) above may, within 30 days of the receipt of such notice, forward to the Inspector a statement setting forth his objections to the registration of the premises as a factory. The Inspector shall consider and dispose of such objections after making such enquiry as he may deem necessary, and shall then include such premises in his register of factories or not, as the case may be.

[Note.—Form A is identical with the form of return which it is proposed that Managers of factories shall submit to the Inspector by the 15th January each year. From this return the Inspector will prepare his register of factories.]

Notice when factory ceases to be occupied.

5. When any premises cease to be occupied as a factory, the occupier may give notice of the fact to the Inspector, who shall, if satisfied that the Act is no longer applicable to such premises, exclude them from his register of factories:

Provided that—

(a) an Inspector may, without such notice, of his own motion at any time exclude any factory from his register if satisfied that it is no longer used as such: and

(b) seasonal factories shall not be excluded from the register if there is a probability of their again starting work within a reasonable time.

Inspection.

6. Every Inspector shall be primarily responsible for the administration of the Act within the area for which he is appointed. An Inspector shall, within such area, inspect every textile factory at least four times a year and every other factory at least once a year. He shall also make such further inspections as may appear to be necessary to him, or to the authority to whom he is subordinate, in order that he may satisfy himself that the provisions of the Act and of these rules are duly observed.

7. (1) The Inspector shall, at each inspection of a factory, satisfy himself that the provisions of the Act and of these rules relating to the health and safety of the persons employed therein are duly observed; that the children employed in the factory have been duly certified and the prescribed register of children properly maintained; that the hours of employment of women and children and of persons working in shifts are properly recorded; that the periodical stoppages of work and the prescribed holidays are granted; that the prescribed limits of hours of work are not exceeded; and that the prescribed abstract and notice are duly maintained and fixed under section 36.

(2) The Inspector shall also enquire into the cause of all accidents which may have taken place since the last inspection, and shall note how far defects pointed out at previous inspections have been removed and how far orders previously issued have been complied with. Any defects which may have been detected at the present inspection, as well as any orders passed by him, shall then be recorded.

(3) A copy of the Inspector's report shall be sent to the occupier or manager of the factory concerned, and extracts of such portions as the Inspector may think necessary shall be sent to the District Magistrate:

Provided that, when in any area the District Magistrate or an additional Inspector exercising all or any of the powers of an Inspector makes an inspection, a copy of the inspection notes shall be sent to the Inspector appointed for that area, under section 4, sub-section (1), for such action as he may think necessary.

8. Every Inspector shall keep a file of inspection reports on factories in Form B in the Schedule attached to these rules, in which shall be recorded all orders and remarks made by him relating to each inspection.

9. (1) The duties of a Certifying Surgeon, as such, and of a person authorised under section 8 to exercise his functions, shall comprise the examination of persons desirous of being employed in a factory and the grant to them of certificates of age and of physical fitness. No fee shall be charged for such examination or for the grant of a certificate in pursuance thereof.

(2) A Certifying Surgeon appointed under section 6 or any person authorised by such Surgeon under section 8 shall fix such place and such times as may be proper for the attendance of persons wishing to obtain certificates of age and physical fitness under section 7. Notice of the place and the times thus fixed shall be given to the manager of the factory concerned within the local limits for which such Surgeon or authorised person is appointed.

10. (1) Every Certifying Surgeon shall keep a bound book containing forms in foil and counterfoil as reproduced in Form C in the Schedule appended to these rules. Such forms shall be numbered consecutively, and shall be printed on cloth-backed paper,

(2) Every certificate granted by a Certifying Surgeon under section 7 shall be prepared by filling up the foil and counterfoil, on both of which shall also be impressed the left thumb mark of the person in whose name the certificate is granted.

(3) The Certifying Surgeon shall, when satisfied as to the correctness of the entries made therein, sign the foil and initial the counterfoil, and shall deliver the foil to the person at whose request the certificate was granted. The foil so delivered shall be the certificate granted under section 7.

(4) If the Certifying Surgeon refuses, for reasons to be stated in writing, to grant to any person a certificate under this rule, no fresh application for a certificate shall be made on behalf of such person until a period of three months has elapsed, unless the Certifying Surgeon otherwise gives permission in writing at the t me of refusing to grant the certificate.

Grant of provisional certificates under section 8.

11. Every person authorised under section 8 to exercise the functions of a Certifying Surgeon shall grant certificates in the manner provided for in the last preceding rule:

Provided that, in the case of such provisional certificate, the left thumb mark of the person in whose name the certificate is granted shall be taken on the counterfoil only.

Provided that children employed solely in the places mentioned in section 3, sub-section (2), need not be produced before him.

(3) The Certifying Surgeon shall personally examine every child who is in possession of a provisional certificate granted under section 8, and shall, if satisfied as to its correctness, countersign the same and return it to its owner, after taking on the foil the left thumb impression of the person in whose name the certificate is granted. Such thumb impression must correspond with that already taken on the counterfoil at the t me of the grant of the provisional certificate.

(4) If on such examination the Certifying Surgeon is of opinion that the person examined is under the age of nine years or is not fit for employment in a factory, he shall retain the certificate, write on it the word "Cancelled" and sign the same, and shall then return the certificate with such remarks, if any, as he may think fit to make, to the person who granted it.

RESOLUTION ON THE TRIENNIAL REPORT ON THE LUNATIC ASYLUMS IN BENGAL FOR THE YEARS 1909, 1910, AND 1911.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT—MEDICAL.

Darjeeling, the 18th June 1912.

RESOLUTION No. 665T.—Medl.

READ—

The Triennial Report on the Lunatic Asylums in Bengal for the years 1909, 1910, and 1911.

Read also—

The Annual Returns of the Lunatic Asylums in Bengal for 1909 and 1910, with the remarks recorded thereon by Government.

THE Report under review deals with the Province of Bengal as it stood before the 1st April 1912.

2. The principal feature of the administration of the Lunatic Asylums in Bengal during the last three years has been the continuous rise in the daily average population, following a similar rise in the preceding triennium. The daily average was 886·54 in 1909, 926·48 in 1910, and 957·58 in 1911. This result is not due to any increase in the number of admissions, as the yearly average during the triennium was 172 against 179 of the previous three years and 211 of the triennium before that. The pressure upon the available accommodation has enforced an endeavour to restrict admissions to lunatics (a) who are dangerous, (b) who are absolutely incapable and have no one to look after them, (c) whose criminal propensities are a real nuisance to society; and to oppose the tendency of relatives to throw upon the State the burden of supporting harmless lunatics. The explanation of the rise in the daily average is to be found in the decrease in the number of discharges and deaths. A total of 296 persons were discharged during the three years, of whom 210 had recovered: the figures in the previous triennium were 344 and 223 respectively. There were 179 deaths during the three years against 226 in the previous triennium. The conclusion to be drawn from these figures is that, while more modern methods of dealing with lunatics have succeeded in reducing the mortality, increased strictness regarding admissions has eliminated the less serious cases of lunacy and has therefore necessarily reduced the number discharged as cured. The readmissions are almost entirely cases of criminal lunatics who had been discharged to stand their trial, and it may be assumed, therefore, that the cures were permanent. But the Report seems to show that the present asylum population consists to a very large extent of hopeless cases, and it may be expected in future that the number of cures and deaths combined will not equal the number of admissions; the daily average therefore will probably continue to rise.

3. The accommodation in the present Lunatic Asylums provides for 929 persons. It was therefore found absolutely insufficient for the insane population of 1911, and temporary accommodation for 90 more had to be provided. The provision of temporary accommodation is an unsatisfactory expedient, and the Asylums in the Province (though that at Berhampore was enlarged in 1905) have for some years been condemned as below the standard of modern requirements. Plans and estimates amounting to 20 lakhs had been carefully evolved for a first class Central Asylum, where a skilled alienist could apply modern methods of treatment, and it had been decided to locate the Asylum at Ranchi in conjunction with a Central Asylum for European lunatics for the whole of Northern India. The reconstitution of the Provinces has rendered necessary a reconsideration of this scheme, and the matter is under correspondence with the Government of Bihar and Orissa. But Government is of opinion that a modern Asylum should be constructed as soon as possible to contain 1,200 patients and the approved plans allow for a further increase in the accommodation, as, while it may be expected that the number of cures may increase owing to more scientific methods of treatment, the mortality will probably decrease; and it may be hoped that in the future insanity may be regarded more as a form of disease than as an irremediable infliction, and the relatives of insane persons may wish to have them properly treated at their own expense by a skilled alienist.

4. The total average annual cost of the Asylums was Rs. 1,62,577 against Rs. 1,49,525 in the preceding triennium. The average cost of each Indian lunatic, deducting the Public Works Department charges, was about Rs. 164 over the whole triennium, being slightly higher than in the previous triennium: the major portion of this is due to diet. There was a satisfactory rise in the receipts from paying patients,—Rs. 14,477 in 1909, Rs. 16,675 in 1910, and Rs. 19,005 in 1911 in the case of Indians; but as criminal lunatics constituted only 37·73 per cent. of the total population in 1911, it is probable that in many cases the relatives of the non-criminal patients are not sufficiently alive to their responsibilities for maintenance.

5. The daily average number of European lunatics rose slightly to 44·52 in 1911, and excluding the payments received, which increased in amount, the cost to Government per head was Rs. 312 in 1911. The provision of increased and better accommodation for Europeans is even more pressing than in the case of Indian lunatics, and it is hoped that this will shortly be undertaken.

6. In spite of the overcrowding which has occurred, the health of the inmates of the Asylums during the triennium under review was good, and reflects credit on their administration. The number of admissions to hospitals was 655 in 1909, 630 in 1910, and 765 in 1911. The daily average number of sick was 115·72 in 1909, 82·81 in 1910, and 79·38 in 1911. At the Berhampore Asylum the admissions rose from 532 in 1910 to 643 in 1911, but this is ascribed to the treatment of a large number of trivial cases in the hospital in order to ensure proper supervision. Phthisis again proved one of the chief causes of mortality in all the Asylums. The statistics of Berhampore were adversely affected by the admission of 19 lunatics already suffering from this disease. The death-rate was 7·31 per cent. as compared with 8·94 in the previous triennium.

7. As in previous years, Calcutta and the district of the 24-Parganas provided more inmates than any other district in the province. Ganja-smoking is alleged to be the cause of insanity in the case of 122 lunatics admitted during the triennium under review. In 1911 the mental aberration in 22 cases is attributed to intemperance in drink as compared with 4 in 1910.

8. His Excellency the Governor in Council notes with satisfaction the increased attention which has been given to the organization of manufactures in the Asylums, chiefly as a means for keeping the patients employed. The proceeds from the sale of articles rose from Rs. 2,946 in 1909 to Rs. 5,296 in 1911, and the value of the manufactured goods made over for Asylum purposes rose from Rs. 17,178 in 1909 to Rs. 19,601 in 1911. The Berhampore dairy has been a great success. His Excellency the Governor in Council concurs with Colonel Harris in his appreciation of the services of the late Major C. J. Robertson-Milne, I.M.S., Superintendent of the Berhampore Asylum, who died in May 1911. To his efforts are due the good results which have been obtained at the Asylum in the face of considerable difficulties. The thanks of the Governor in Council are due to Colonel Harris for his Report and to the other officers who had charge of the Asylums.

By order of the Governor of Bengal in Council,

H. L. STEPHENSON,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.
